

THE PRINCIPALS' CENTRE IN AUSTRALIA

Empowering School Leaders in Australia, New Zealand, and Southeast Asia to Drive Meaningful Change

A joint program of HSGE and the Harvard Club of Australia

MEETING REGION-SPECIFIC CHALLENGES

Designed for educational leaders in the Western Pacific, The Principals' Centre in Australia program, jointly presented by the Harvard Graduate School of Education (HGSE) Professional Education and the Harvard Club of Australia, aims to help you make a transformative impact on your school's learning culture. The program provides you with the knowledge and skills you need to effectively lead instructional change and accelerate learning in your district.

LEADERSHIP RELEVANT TO YOUR SCHOOL ENVIRONMENT

Featuring regionally based content, including Australia-specific case studies, the program addresses issues of critical importance to school leaders: instructional leadership, leadership development, and family and community engagement.

Over the course of five days, you will work with colleagues from across Australasia, exploring research-based techniques and best practices as you cultivate a leadership plan for your school. Specifically, the program is designed to help you:

- Acquire the leadership skills you need to improve instructional quality
- Cultivate a school culture that prioritizes learning for all
- Identify optimal learning conditions
- Build long-term strategies and design pedagogical initiatives informed by actual school data
- Facilitate better outcomes by increasing engagement among family members and community stakeholders

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This program is appropriate for:

- School administrators and principals from government, independent, and Catholic schools across Australasia
- Educators currently in school leadership positions and seeking to hone or improve leadership skills
- Principals and school leaders seeking to improve student outcomes
