HCA President's Report 2013-2014

It is my great pleasure to present to you my second report as President of the Harvard Club of Australia. With the support of a committed Council and an engaged membership, your Club has excelled in delivering on its goals of:

An outstanding new Website

An enhanced suite of scholarships to attend Harvard

Better engaging with our chapters outside of NSW

Involving more recent graduates of HCA

Providing members with the opportunity to regularly meet and socialise with fellow club members

Promoting Harvard University in Australia and assist Australians wishing to study there.

Events

We have had a very busy year on the social front. I would especially like to pay tribute to:

Naomi Flutter for hosting the Christmas drinks at her beautiful home in Surry Hills.

Richard Broinowski for hosting the Monday Club lunches with such pizzazz. Richard is stepping down this year and we will miss him

Ted Blamey for yet another sell out Nonprofit Awards Luncheon. This year's speakers featured Lucy Turnbull, Her Excellency Marie Bashir and Michael Traill. This is surely the pre-eminent non-profits scholarship in Australia

Juliet Anderson for her continued support and kind nature.

Melinda Muth for being so helpful and kind when running the Leadership Program this year in conjunction with an ailing Clive Gard.

The Harvard Club of Australia Philanthropy

HCA Philanthropy Pty Limited is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Club which acts as the umbrella organization for our various scholarships and fellowships and our Leadership programs. HCA Philanthropy operates the Annual Leadership Program and Nonprofit Workshop. It uses the funds generated from these programs, as well as funds donated by members, to support the Australia-Harvard Fellowship, the Roberta Sykes Harvard Club Scholarship, the Wolfensohn Fellowship, the Menzies Scholarship and other exchanges between the University and Australia. Together with Perpetual Trustees Limited it is joint corporate trustee of the Harvard Club of Australia Foundation. The Annual Report of HCA Philanthropy Pty Limited is enclosed with this report.

Menzies Scholarship 2012

75 Menzies Scholarships have now been awarded over 47 years. Three past Scholars served on the selection panel this year: Kim Rubenstein, Menzies'91 LLM'93 and currently Director of the Centre for International and Public Law at ANU, chaired the panel aided by Glen Withers, Menzies'70 PhD'75 also of ANU, and Ms Alexandra West, Menzies'02 MPA'04 representing the Sydney Club. Other Harvard Club representatives this year were Ms Lucinda Glover, MC/MPA'12 of Canberra and Mr Jeffrey Bentley-Johnson, MBA'70 also of Sydney. Jeffrey was serving his third and final year on the panel, for which we thank him.

From over 70 applications, three exceptional scholars have been awarded R.G. Menzies Scholarships to Harvard for 2014:

Amy Chandran is to study for a MPP focusing on social and urban policy at the Kennedy School of Government.

Simon Malian heads to the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences for a MSc in Computational Science with particular interest in social enterprise initiatives, a first for a Menzies Scholar.

Angela Winkle will make good use of this year's additional Menzies Scholarship funded by the HBS Class of '70 by adding an MBA to her background in architecture and climate change studies.

Roberta Sykes Harvard Club Scholarship

The Roberta Sykes Harvard Club Scholarship is for talented Indigenous Australians who have potential to become leaders in both their field of study and in their communities. The Scholarship was formed in honour of Roberta Sykes (1943-2010), an Australian poet and author, and activist in Indigenous affairs, who graduated from Harvard with a PhD in 1984. As a result of her own experiences in struggling to obtain adequate funding to complete her studies at Harvard, it became part of her life's work to encourage and support Indigenous Australians to realise their dreams for further education.

The following scholars were supported in the 2013-14 year:

- Kathleen Jackson, PhD program in African American Studies, Department of History, Harvard University
- Kevin Smith, "Strategic Perspectives in Non-profit Management", Harvard Business School in July 2013

Kathleen Jackson is a graduate of the University of Newcastle in 2011 with a Bachelor of Arts with Distinction and a Bachelor of Laws and a recipient of the Sarah Wheeler Prize for History. Kathleen describes her time at Harvard as 'an unending learning experience':

"All my courses this semester were incredibly useful towards either my oral examination preparation, or for developing my thesis research. Similarly, I have had an opportunity to develop skills outside of my own discipline, particularly anthropology, literary studies, and cultural studies. I think I have improved my academic skills in relation to thinking outside the box, and working to a deadline. My thesis continues to focus on racial passing in the African American experience in contrast to the Indigenous Australian experience. I have developed the Australia aspect a bit more this semester through oral, family histories and the early stages of a literature review."

Kevin Smith (CEO of Queensland South Native Title Services) reflected on the value of his short non-profit management course at Harvard Business School to his work, particularly the opportunity to learn from a diverse group of organizations from around the world:

"Regardless of the type of work undertaken whether it be coordination, service delivery or advocacy in the many diverse fields that make up the NFP sector, there were remarkably similar challenges common to all actors nuanced only by location, time or scale. Some of the important insights I took away included the need to be vigilant to maintain alignment between the organisation's value proposition, capacity and support base. The course also gave some practical insights into the rather murky area of impact assessment; a challenge from all NFPs who grapple with measuring whether their interventions have indeed achieved the broader societal goals and objectives enunciated in mission and vision statements."

The scholarship is co-funded with the Roberta Sykes Indigenous Education Foundation and forms part of the Club's philanthropic program to give outstanding Australians an opportunity to undertake postgraduate studies at Harvard.

Australia-Harvard Fellowship

The Australia Harvard Fellowships saw another busy year of Scientific Exchange. A special thank you to John Turner AMP'86, who has been the driving force behind the Fellowship for the past eight years.

John is stepping down this year and we thank him for his service over many years with the club

HCA Education Scholarship

This year we helped send six outstanding Public School Principals to study at the Harvard Graduate School of Education. We broadened our geographic spread of applicants this year to include the rest of Australia and indeed Principals applied from Central Australia, Tasmania and WA.

School Principals play such an important role in our community and receive so little recognition.

The feedback from this year's winners was about an outstanding course that broadened their mind and helped make many friends in the teaching profession from all over the world. This Scholarship is co-chaired by the Public Education Foundation and we thank them for their support and the good work they do in our Public Schools.

Hopefully this scholarship will continue to grow in prominence in the years ahead

Non-Profit Fellowship

Thanks to the continuing generosity of Bill, Lea and the Ferris family and to the leadership of Ted Blamey, the Club celebrated the 14th Year of our Nonprofit Fellowship Program.

The 2014 Fellows are Professor David Mackey, Managing Director, Lions Eye Institute in Perth (nominated by last year's Fellow, Brett Robertson) and Ms. Maree Sidey, General Manager, Good Sports in Melbourne (nominated by Michael Doery). Both fellows attended Strategic Perspectives in Non-profit Management (SPNM), the annual strategy course for senior non-profit executives held at HBS in July.

The 2014 Fellowships were presented before an enthusiastic crowd by the Hon. Dame Marie Bashir, AD CVO, Governor of NSW at the annual Nonprofit Luncheon on Friday, 13 June at the Union, Universities & Schools Club. After lunch another excellent Nonprofit Leadership Address was given, this year by Lucy Turnbull, AO.

Ted Blamey has led the program since its conception in 2001. As Chairman he was joined in the 2014 selection process by club members Tony Massaro, Lisa George, Amanda Goodman and Ben Sebel. Juliet Anderson again served valuably as the program's administrator.

Sir James Wolfensohn Public Service Scholarship

Now in its third year, the Sir James Wolfensohn Public Service Scholarship will this year send three of Australia's most promising public servants to the Harvard Kennedy School, on scholarship to undertake an executive education program at the Kennedy School of Government.

The 2014 recipients of the Wolfensohn Scholarship are Benjamin Rimmer, Associate Secretary of the Department of Human Services, Steven Kennedy, the Deputy Secretary of the Department of the Environment, and Susan Middleditch, the Chief Executive of the Queensland Health Services Support Agency.

With the support of the former chairman of the World Bank, Jim Wolfensohn, the Harvard Club of Australia established the Wolfensohn Scholarship in 2012 to promote the development and delivery of good public policy.

The three recipients were chosen from a wide field of candidates, all nominated by a Commonwealth, state or territory department or agency head. A shortlist of candidates was interviewed by a panel of Harvard University alumni comprising Luke Woodward (Partner, Gilbert + Tobin), Nicholas Whitlam (Port Authority of NSW), Peter Thompson (The Centre for Leadership) and David Fite (private investor).

From this year, the Sir James Wolfensohn Public Service Scholarship has been managed by HCA members Luke Woodward and Aaron Patrick.

Leadership Programs

The 2014 Leadership Program, titled "Competitive & Political Advantage: Formulating and Implementing Strategic Change" was held on 3 - 8 August, for the first time at Aitken Hill Conference Centre, Victoria. This year's program was conducted by HBS Professors David Yoffie and Professor Oberholzer-Gee from Harvard Business School

After a one-year break in 2013, HCA developed a new approach for the highly successful Non Profit Leaders' Workshops offered from 2007 to 2012. The 2014 program was taught entirely by a Professor from the Harvard Business School and limited to 50 participants.

The Nonprofit Leaders Workshop "Effective Strategies for Non Profit Organisations" was held from Thursday 31 July to Saturday 2 August 2014 and presented by Professor Felix Oberholzer-Gee, Harvard Business School at the Sydney Conference Training Centre, Ingleside Road, Narrabeen, NSW.

Monday Club

Guest speakers in 2014 have reinforced the high standard set at the Monday Club in previous years. In February, we benefited from the presence of Professor George Williams, a public commentator from the University of NSW who talked about the current political situation in Australia; in March by General Steve Gower, AO, former Director of the Australian War Memorial in Canberra, who gave his impressions of the forthcoming 100th anniversary of the Gallipoli landing; and in April by Mary Jerram, who related her experiences as a recently-retired NSW State Coroner.

Luncheons were temporarily suspended in May, June and July while financial adjustments were made to allow a small sinking fund to be established to provide a travel budget for future interstate speakers. To help identify suitable future speakers Richard was also joined by three Harvard alumnae - Dr Kirthana Sharma, Karen Freyer and Tempe McGowan.

At the resumed August luncheon, our guest speaker was Jillian Skinner, NSW Minister of Health, who talked among other things about the enormous challenges she faced in financing future public health demands from an aging population in NSW. In October, November and December respectively, our speakers will be Professor Paul McGillick, a prominent NSW architect, Emeritus Professor Gillian Triggs the President of the Australian Human Rights Commission, and Professor John Kaldor AM. the well-known collector, patron and supporter of contemporary art in Australia

A number of prominent Australians have expressed their interest in addressing us in the New Year.

Schools and Scholarships Committee

Sarah Strasser led a dedicated team of members who interviewed a number of high school students as part of their application process to Harvard College. College graduates who would like to join the interviewing team should contact Sarah or the President.

Crimson Fellows

17 new Crimson Fellows, having been members for 25 years continuously, joined our roll of honour in 2013. William Paget (AMP88); Bonita Boezeman (PMD87); Andrew Denver (MBA76); Marilyn Alt (MPA87); Peter Thompson (MPA87); Robert Gausson (TUP88); Peter Hamburger (MPA88); Rodney Marks (MPA88); Michael Cassidy (MPA88); Tony Ryan (MPH67); Gunter Prass (AMP79); Chris Harris (PMD84); Walter Stamm (AMP76); John Magee (AMP84); David Scrimgeour (MPH88); Jane Wilson (MBA87); John Tucker (MBA73).

New Members

A total of 48 new members joined the Club in 2013.

HCA Council

The Harvard Club of Australia would not be possible without the hard work and dedication of a wide range of members. In particular, I would like to recognise the contribution of the Councillors and its Executive, all of whom are volunteers and give of their time most graciously.

I would like to extend a special thank you to:

Naomi Flutter who has proven to be a brilliant and innovative Vice President. The Club is lucky to have her and she will make a fine President.

Lisa George for being so dedicated and attending so many events. She too will make a fine president with Naomi.

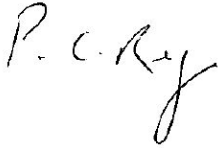

Charlie Graham, Joanna Marsh Justin Greiner for our regular breakfasts and new ideas. Next year's executive is a young and exciting team There is plenty of good times ahead.

Melinda Muth and her husband Ian for all the dedication they brought to the Annual Leadership Program – held this year in Victoria. Melinda was HCA's main conduit to Clive Gard as he fell ill and a wonderful companion to him in his final months

Scoti Albrecht for attending so many events and reviving the Club newsletter, which has proven enormously popular.

Juliet Anderson for her kindness and patience dealing with so many club issues as administrator

As always, the Executive and Council welcomes the contributions and involvement from all members as we are looking for new ideas and interesting activities.

HARVARD CLUB OF AUSTRALIA INCORPORATED

Significant Accounting Policies

Harvard Club of Australia Incorporated is not a reporting entity because the Principal Committee Members are of the opinion that there are unlikely to exist users who are able to command the preparation of financial reports tailored to satisfy all of their information needs. Therefore this financial report is a "Special Purpose Financial Report" that has been prepared solely to satisfy the financial reporting requirements of the Committee, its members and Associations Incorporation Act NSW 2009.

The financial report has been prepared on a cash basis:

- Provisions for invoices not received but applicable for the current year

The financial report is also based on historic costs and does not take into account changing money values or, except where specifically stated, current valuations of non-current assets.
